

102nd Mission Support Group

Vision Statement:

To be recognized as the state and nation's first best choice for in-garrison, expeditionary combat, and domestic operations support.

Mission Statement:

To provide full spectrum mission support to in-garrison Wing Missions and Base Operating Support to Joint Base Cape Cod, and trained, ready airmen to support expeditionary combat missions and domestic operations missions.

Federal Mission:

When federally activated, the Mission Support Group ensures that well-trained and well-equipped squadrons are readily available for immediate mobilization during times of war or conflict.

State Mission:

The Mission Support Group provides critical support during both planned and unplanned emergencies under a Governor-declared emergency, offering capabilities such as route clearing, snow removal, chain saw teams, riot control, and any other necessary assistance.

Force Structure or Organization:

The 102nd Mission Support Group is comprised of approximately 420 military and civilian personnel.

The 102nd Mission Support Group is comprised of five Squadrons:

102nd Security Forces Squadron
102nd Civil Engineering Squadron
102nd Force Support Squadron
102nd Logistics Readiness Squadron
102nd Communications Squadron
102nd Mission Support Contracting Office
Type IIC Precision Measurement Equipment Laboratory

Functions and Capabilities:

The 102nd Mission Support Group provides an expansive range of local and deployment support services in response to the local and worldwide mission needs of the Massachusetts Air National Guard and the U.S. Air Force.

In addition to providing services to the 102nd Intelligence Wing, the 102 MSG is responsible for providing basic infrastructure support, such as, security, road maintenance, utilities, communications and other services to the 30 tenants on 22k acres for 5k personnel at Joint Base Cape Cod.

Background:

The 102nd Mission Support Group has consistently delivered world-class mission support, both in overseas deployments and from their home station, since its establishment. With impressive retention and reenlistment rates, the 102 MSG boasts a diverse team of combat-experienced professionals ready to support federal and state taskings at a moment's notice.
