Commander's Comments

Col. Patrick Cobb: "Change"

Change is usually something most people fear. The vast majority of humans like things to stay the same..."don't rock the boat". As airmen, we are in the minority because the Air Force was built on change. The technological changes that surround flight since the early 1900's have been truly astounding. MORE...

Otis Air National Guard Base / News and Features

Satellite NCO Academy now offered at Otis

Eleven staff and technical sergeants of the Massachusetts Air National Guard's 102nd Intelligence Wing, flight name: "Boston Strong", began Class 13-9, a satellite Noncommissioned Officer (NCO) Academy at here on Aug 27. The NCO Academy in-residence or via satellite is a requirement for promotion to Master Sgt. MORE...

Otis selected as base network modernization pilot site

Base Area Network (BAN) modernizations are coming to all Air National Guard units in the upcoming years, but here at Otis we will be among the first to see the upgrades implemented. The Base LAN Modernization project is an ANG-wide initiative that will improve performance and reliability of a base's network infrastructure. MORE...

FOODRUNNER NOW OPEN • Mon. - Fri. and UTA weekends

6:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Foodrunner is a new lunch wagon located on the corner of Richardson Road and Generals Boulevard on JBCC. They are a Disabled Veteran training facility that is the first in the nation to prioritize the hiring of Disabled American Veterans with service connected disabilities. Try "The General" burger, or "The Coastie" chicken sandwich. Stop by the wagon or call (508) 237-6995 for delivery on base.

Chapel Corner

"Life Maintenance" by Ch. \(Lt. Col.\) David Berube

In The Breakwater on Elk Creek (1), author G. E. Wallace tells about a young man named George Jennings who was hired to build a breakwater. It seems the owner of a summer home on Elk Creek commissioned George to construct a breakwater to prevent his land from getting washed away in the event of a storm. MORE...

Announcements

SEPT 14, 2 p.m. • Brig. Gen. Anthony Schiavi Retirement Ceremony

Brig. Gen. Anthony Schiavi will be retiring and the ceremony is being held September 14, at 5 p.m. at the Coonamessett Inn, Falmouth. Cost: $50 per person and please R.S.V.P. to Master Sgt. Andrea Burgo at 508-968-4667. Brig. Gen. Schiavi has served for 30 years and has most recently held the position of Executive Director of Joint Base Cape Cod.

SEPT 14 • Supervisor Safety training

There will be a Supervisor Safety Training class provided on Saturday, Sept. 14th from 1300 to 1500, Building 330 in Great Room A. This one time training trains supervisors in management skills needed to implement safety policies and programs. The course provides basic skills needed for fostering a workplace where hazards are identified and risks are managed. Please call Wing Safety at 508-968-4110/4007 to reserve a seat.

SEPT 14 • Air Operations Group - Change of Command

Command of the 102nd Air Operations Group will change from Col. Richard Sweeten to Col. Timothy Estep. The new deputy commander will be Col. Frank Aflague. The ceremony will take place on the hangar-floor of Building 158 at 1500.

SEPT 15 • Family Day

The annual 102nd Intelligence Wing Family Day festivities are scheduled for Sunday, Sept. 15, 2013. All wing members who are not directly supporting operations must be in formation wearing the uniform of the day with cover (hat) on the Building 158 hangar floor no later than 9:45 a.m. If your family needs a base access pass, please contact your first sergeant immediately. This event is for all military and civilian employees and their family members. Look forward to a day of fun and fellowship!

SEPT 17 • Campaign Streamer Ceremony

The Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts will publicly recognize recently-deployed Mass. National Guard units with campaign streamers. The ceremony will be held in the Massachusetts Statehouse, Tuesday morning at ten. Among those receiving the streamers from Gov. Deval Patrick are six units from the 102nd Intelligence Wing.

Commander's Cup

TIE-BREAKER: FOOTBALL! SEPT 14

This year there was actually a tie prior to Family Day between AOG and Med/Wing. Since only one units name will fit on a plaque affixed to the trophy we must have a tie-breaking event. With that said there will be a flag football Superbowl held on Saturday Sept. 14th at 11:30 a.m between AOG and Med/Wing. The game will take place on the field next to the Med Group. Lunch will be provided by the Company Grade Officer Council. The game will be 30 minutes and the winning Unit Commander receives the trophy during the Family day ceremony.

Contact Capt. Swift for more information about the upcoming Commander's Cup events. All events start at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday unless otherwise noted.
